

Шановні колеги!

Пересилаю вам чергову пропозицію. Хоча вона і виглядає фантастичною, все може статися, тому майте її на увазі.

Просив би вас також поширити цю інформацію серед колег. Зрештою, порожній будинок за наших часів може виявитись не таким вже і недосяжним. Може, в когось рідні вже за кордоном, а дістатися Ірландії може виявитись легше, ніж перетнути український кордон.

З повагою,
Б.Малюк

Subject: offer of a house in Ireland

To: <bimalyuk@gmail.com>

Boris,

I was given your contact information by Morten Smelror and Henrik Schiellerup from the Geological Survey of Norway. I hope you have safely reached Western Europe and that you will not mind me contacting you in this way. Like everyone else, I am stunned and appalled by recent events and in awe of Ukrainian bravery and determination.

I am an economic geology professor and director of iCRAG, a research centre in applied geosciences based in Dublin, Ireland. My wife (also a geoscientist) and I are fortunate to have a house about 100 km from Dublin in a rural part of Co. Kilkenny in SE Ireland. We only stay there occasionally and we would be happy to share it with some of your colleagues or acquaintances who might like to come to Ireland. The house is old and it is in the country, about 1 km from the nearest shop and 6 km from the nearest town so it is not ideal for someone who needs easily accessible facilities but it does have all the basic necessities and it is in a tranquil part of the country. I can provide more detail if it would be helpful.

I fully understand that you must be overwhelmed at the moment and I don't want to burden you but I wanted to make this offer in case it might make life a bit easier for someone at this terribly difficult time. Please do let me know if you need further information or if I can help in any way.

Wishing you the best as you and your country face many challenges.

Sincerely,
MurrayHitzman
